PEONIES

Plants should be set as soon as received, placing so that the buds will be about two inches below the leveled surface of the soil when planting is complete.

Prices quoted are for strong divisions from mature plants. The figures preceding the names are the ratings given by The American Peony Society.

3 or more of a kind at dozen rate, if dozen rate is quoted. If peonies are desired in quantities of 25 or more of a variety, totaling 100 or more plants, special prices can be given for many of the varieties.

Single Varieties

Mixed Singles. Various shades of pink and red, not including the varieties listed below. 40c. 12 for $3.60, 25 for $6.60.

8.4 Albiflora, The Bride. Flowers very large, blush white when opening, pure white when open. $1.00.

Hollis Dark Single. Deep and rich in color, and very early. 40c. 12 for $4.00.

8.6 Mikado. Japanese type, and one of the finest of bright red peonies. $2.00.

While this list contains many varieties not of high rating, the high-rating varieties are not impaired by their presence; nor, on the other hand, are the low rating varieties abashed by the presence of those of high rating, for they are good varieties, each having its peculiar charm, and each its item of beauty found in no other flower.

BEARDED IRISES

The bearded irises should be planted shallow, and should be given, as nearly as possible, a dry, well-drained location in full sun. A dressing of some form of lime or limestone is very beneficial.

Germanica Alba. Early. Pure white. 15c.

Kochii. Early. Buds soot-black, flower deepest purple. An indispensable variety. 15c. 6 for 75c.

Ciengiali. Similar to Pallida Dalmatica, but smaller, deeper in color, daintily crinkled and richly fragrant. For color-mass it is superior, being more profuse in bloom, and richer and more brilliant in color. 15c. 6 for 66c, 25 for $2.25.

Pallida Dalmatica. Plant large, tall and stately. Flower very large. soft lavender in color. 20c. 6 for $1.00, 25 for $3.00.

Innocenza. Late. Rich brilliant ivory-white, a charming variety, tall and graceful. 20c. 6 for $1.00.

Black Knight. Black Prince. Standards deep blue, falls rich dark velvety purple. $1.00.

Iris Collection. The plants of this collection belong to the estate of an iris enthusiast, and, while they do not include the extravagant-priced varieties, their quality is high, and they will give more than value for the money. As there are some of the varieties I can not identify, I have to offer them unnamed, though the varieties are grown separately. 10, all different, $1.50. 100, including at least 10 varieties, in mixture, $8.00. The same, but names given so far as possible and varieties kept separate, 10 for $2.00, 100 for $10.00.

BEARDLESS IRISES

These thrive in any good garden location, but especially enjoy a location by the waterside. Pseudacorus will grow in water, and makes a handsome house plant in a two-gallon butter jar filled three-fourths full of earth kept covered with water.

Siberian, Blue King. Rich blue. 15c. 6 for 50c, 25 for $1.50.

Siberian, Dark Blue. Sanguinea (?). Darker than Blue King, and a few days difference in time of bloom. 15c. 6 for 50c, 25 for $1.50.

Siberian, Superba. Velvety dark purple. 15c.

Siberian, Snow Queen. White. 15c.

Siberian, Distinction. A flower of remarkable grace and beauty, and highly effective in mass planting. Rich blue, with white veining. The stems are very tall, holding the flower mass completely above the foliage, and bear a quantity of buds which give a display of bloom for a long time. 25c. 6 for $1.20, 12 for $2.00.

Siberian, Pale Blue. 15c. 6 for 50c.

Siberian, Butterfly. Strong grower. Large flower of light blue. 25c.

Siberian, Emperor. Large flower of very dark blue-purple. 50c.

Siberian, Perry's Blue. Very tall. Large flower of clear blue. 75c.

Pseudacorus. Foliage tall and handsome. Flower flat, a deep golden yellow with black markings. 20c. 3 for 50c.

Orientalis Gigantea. Ochroleuca. A superb flower, pure ivory-white, with yellow blotch on the falls. 25c. 6 for $1.20, 12 for $2.25.

Longipetala Superba. Spuria Mrs. A. W. Tait. This is like the preceding variety in type, but a dainty lavender in color, shading from nearly blue to pink, with yellow suffusions. 25c.

Versicolor. The common wild water-flag. Pale lavender. 15c. 4 for 50c.

Aurea. Similar to Pseudacorus. 20c. 3 for 50c.

MISCELLANEOUS

Snowdrop. The earliest, also one of the most exquisite, of the spring flowers. Must be ordered before fall, and should be planted at once in a cool, moist, shady place, where it can remain for years. 5c. 6 for 20c, 12 for 36c, 25 for 60c.

Star of Bethlehem. Ornithogalum Umbellatum. White, with greenish tinge. Blooms in great masses when established. 5c. 6 for 20c, 25 for 50c, 250 for $4.00.

Giant Star of Bethlehem. Also an Ornithogalum. A house plant only. Forms a large bulb which grows on top of the soil in the pot. Bulbels, 1 for 10c, 3 for 25c.

Lily of the Valley. Its spike of little pure white bells is one of the most beautiful and best loved of all flowers. Requires a location cool, moist, and shady. 15c per plant of 3 buds. Per 15 buds, 50c.

Hardy Bamboo. A strong, hard-wooded, grassy-looking plant, one of the most elegant ornamentals of shrub size. Can be delivered only in the spring. One-year field-grown plants, 60c, 2 for $1.00. Older plants, $1.00.

All prices in this list include delivery by mail or express.

TULIPS-NARCISSI

It is impossible to get out my bulb list until the bulbs have been dug and at least partially graded. Do not worry. The bulb list will follow abundantly in time to take care of your needs for fall planting.
